Messina, August 22, N. S.

THIS Day Seven-night two Neapolitan Galliots came in here, and brought with them 60 lusty young Slaves, the Remainder of about 120, the Crews of two Tripolin Galliots they met with and took off of Cape Stilo in Calabria Ulteriore two Days before; and they are now performing Quarantain at this Lazaretto. The same Day also arrived here from Naples the St. Carlo Man of War, a new Ship of 50 Guns, commanded by the Chevalier Mayo, a Knight of Malta; on which are shipped most of the Cannon that have hitherto been fished up from the Spanish Ships sunk here in the Year 1719, which she is to carry back with her to Naples, and may depart in a Day or two.

Petersbourg, Aug. 26, O. S. The Persian Ambassadour having taken his Leave some time ago, is set out on his Return; but there is yet no News of his Successor's being arrived on the Frontiers.

Naples, Sept. 6. This Morning about Four of the Clock the Queen of the two Sicilies was delivered of a Princess. His Sicilian Majesty attended the whole Night, and the Pope's Nuncio, the Ambassador of France, the Envoy of Holland, the Minister of Poland, the four Secretaries of State, and all the Lords and Ladies of the Bed-Chamber, were called to be present in the Chamber adjoining to the Queen's; from whence the new born Infant was brought out immediately by the Marchioness of Sto. Marco, a Roman Lady who is appointed Governess, and shewn to the Company; after which it was baptized by the Name of Mary-Elizabeth.

Dresden, Sept. 7. His Polish Majesty has been pleased to translate M. Grebowski Bishop of Cujavia, to the Bishoprick of Varmia; by which Preferment he likewise becomes a titular Prince of the Empire. He, the Palatin of Cracow, and the Pope's Nuncio, are on their Departure for Poland.

Copenhagen, Sept. 13, N. S. Count Rantzau, the last Stadtholder of Norway, is now appointed Stadtholder of the Island of Fuhnen, in the Room of M. Sehested lately deceased.

Berlin, Sept. 13, N. S. The Marquess de Beauvau is expected here in a few Days from Paris, to compliment the King of Prussia in the Name of his most Christian Majesty, upon his Accession to the Crown.

St. Hellens, September 18.

This Day at Noon Capt. Anson in His Majesty's Ship the Centurion, with all the Ships and Vessels under his Command, sailed from hence with the Wind at South-East.

Whitehall, Sept. 16, 1740.

Whereas on Friday the 29th Day of August last past, between the Hours of Eleven at Night and Four the next Morning, several Persons feloniously broke into Cobham-Hall in Kent, the Seat of the Right Hon the Earl of Darnley, and broke open the Steward's Closet and Drawers, and took away from thence a considerable Sum of Money, and broke open a Chest of Drawers in a Bed-chamber there, from whence they took away a great Quantity of Linnen: In order to discover the Person or Persons concerned in the said Robbery, their Excellencies the Lords Justices are pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any of them who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Andrew Stone.

And as a further Encouragement for making such Discovery as aforesaid, the said Earl of Darnley hereby promises a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to be paid to the Person or Persons making such Discovery, on the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders.

Darnley.

Navy Office, Sept. 22, 1740.

These are to give Notice, That the Two Months Wages in Six, due to his Majesty's Ship and Yacht under-mentioned, to the Times against them express'd, will be paid at the Pay Office in Broad-street on Tuesday the 20th of October next, to the Seamens lawful Attornies, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament on that Behalf, viz

Burford, Feb 1, 1739.
Dublin Yacht June 30, 1740.

General Post-Office, London, June 16, 1740.

Whereas the Post-Boy carrying the North Mail from Royston to Ware, was attacked in the Highway, between One and Two of the Clock last Friday Morning, the 13th Instant, on the North Side of Hamill's Park, belonging to Ralph Freeman, Esq; about three Miles beyond Ware, by a single Highwayman, who wore a short thick Man in his own Hair, with a brown great Coat, riding a black Horse, with a Star in his Forehead, having two white Heels behind, who took from him the Peterborough Mail, which contained the following Bags, viz. Peterborough, Boston, Louth, Horncastle, and Spalding.

The Postmaster General thinks proper to advertise the Publick, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, will be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, besides the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any
